

Baynerts the only goal and it's a U's double

With ruthless efficiency, Cambridge United captured two points and completed an Eastern Professional Floodlight League double over Romford by netting the only goal at Brooklands last night.

Romford 0, Cambridge U. 1. (Attendance 1,056).

found it difficult to run with the ball on a heavy, clinging surface. The only goal of the match came in the 24th minute from Day, who seems to save his scores for the odd-goal victory. He tried a left-footed shot from the edge of the penalty area and Lawrence made as if to flick the ball. The inside forward, however, did not connect and the Romford goalkeeper, Ted Ditchburn, was left floundering as the shot crept in the corner.

United should have had several more goals but Randall and his colleagues were never quite quick enough in front of goal. The home side were limited to about four worthwhile shots, but each of these found Smith in top form.

Brian Boggis had his best chance for several matches and he was not passed once in the 90 minutes. Billy Welsh also performed well, while Matt McVittie was the pick of the forwards.

The little inside left seems to have boundless energy and in the last five minutes he found enough strength to run 40 yards at top speed to rob a Romford forward in the U's penalty area.

Tempers ran high several times, but the referee, Mr. G. Reed, of Bishops Stortford, kept control, and the game never got out of hand.

For the last two seasons there has never been more than one goal between the two teams. They have always been tough, uncompromising battles and last night proved no exception.

United held a distinct advantage for most of the first half. They scored after 24 minutes and should have had another three minutes before the interval. White slipped and left Randall with a clear run to goal. The first shot was parried by Ditchburn and the centre-forward hit the rebound straight back at the goalkeeper.

Flying saves

After the interval, with Brian Kelly working hard for the home side, Romford started to get back into the picture, but the U's defence gave nothing away. Most of the danger came from Saunders, on the right wing.

Twice Smith made flying saves from the winger, but this was the only danger to the U's goal and, showing their skill in breakaways as they did at Bath on Saturday, the visitors could have added another before the end.

Gibson tried a long shot which Ditchburn missed badly. Randall flicked the ball along the goal line but there was nobody to add the finishing touch.

Cambridge United: Smith; Boggis, Finch, Gibson, Kelly, Welsh; Day, Lawrence, Randall, McVittie, Greene.

County badminton team's revenge

The last time the Cambridgeshire Badminton first team met Suffolk, they were defeated 8-7 but on Saturday they turned the tables to the tune of 13-2.

Junior badminton enthusiasm

This year the Junior Badminton Club was able to use the Corn Exchange, Cambridge, during the Christmas holiday, and as a result nearly 50 children had the benefit of coaching in this game which is becoming increasingly popular.

The club has some very promising youngsters, who show improvement each year, and it is pleasing to see such enthusiasm among these young people.

Nomads hockey teams falter

Nomads 1, Bury St. Edmunds Y.M.C.A. 3

But for the result of the third eleven game, Bury St. Edmunds Y.M.C.A. Hockey Club would have enjoyed a clean sweep against Cambridgeshire Nomads on Saturday.

Five years ago, almost to the day, the Nomads had enjoyed an identical result. History was not repeated in this game although the Nomads were beaten, but few would have predicted this win after the home side's fine victory in the previous week over Bishops Stortford.

This Bury victory was all the more surprising since the Nomads fielded a strong side.

The game never lived up to expectations and was for the most part a little scrappy. This, of course, was to be expected under the underfoot conditions, with defences in particular finding it difficult indeed to obtain a foothold. Bury played a more open type of game which suited the conditions and this was the main reason for their victory. In contrast, the home side kept the ball too close.

The visitors led 2-0 at half time and on resuming, increased their lead. The Nomads fought back and reduced the arrears through Goff on but, despite determined efforts to get on terms, the Bury defence prevented further scoring. Elkins, at centre half, once again served the Nomads well.

Bury St. Edmunds Y.M.C.A. 11 2, Nomads 11 0

Here again, this was a victory which was not anticipated as the visitors fielded a very strong side. However, this closely knit and compact Bury team were perhaps a little unlucky not to have increased their tally.

The Nomads played reasonably well as individuals, but there was a marked lack of co-ordination in the side; in addition, they had no answer to the Bury centre forward, Crystal, who led his forwards with great skill and obtained both goals.

Nomads 11 & 4, Bury St. Edmunds Y.M.C.A. 11 & 2

Early in the season both teams had shared two goals at Bury St. Edmunds and on Saturday they both went flat out to prove their superiority.

When Robinson put his side in the lead almost from the bully-off it appeared that the home side would run riot, but the visitors had other ideas and deservedly drew level from a short corner some ten minutes later. Both sides fought hard for supremacy and play remained fairly even.

Boland, in the home goal, saved the situation on a number of occasions with timely clearances and when Turner put his side ahead just before half time, the Nomads were a little lucky to cross over with a narrow margin.

The Nomads went ahead immediately on resuming when Norton was on hand to take advantage of a through ball. A spirited rally by Bury was foiled and when Robinson notched a further point it appeared that the visitors had burned their boats. However, Bury, deservedly reduced the lead in the closing stages.

This Bury side were quite the best team the Nomads third team have met this season and the home side can feel very proud of their third successive victory.

The Nomads were well served by Boland and Webster. Club record to date:

1st XI	15	7	7	40	39
2nd XI	14	11	9	4	10	39

Social functions

Once again the Nomads, in collaboration with their neighbours, the Cambridge City club, will be holding an annual hockey dance at the Masonic Hall on January 28.

On January 21, the Nomads are the guests of 248 (E.A.) Field Squadron. On this occasion, a social evening will be held at the T.A. Centre, Coldham's Lane. In addition a shoulder-to-shoulder shoot will take place. The Nomads will be represented by P. Morris, T. Webster, D. Fisher, R. Turner, M. Saberton, A. Beber, and I. A. P. Turley, the club president.

Walden pack failed to get possession

Saffron Walden 3 points, St. Neots 6.

Wet and sticky conditions together with a high wind contrived to make this a Rugby match with more than its normal share of play amongst the forwards, especially in lines-out.

In this department, Walden, although fielding a larger, though certainly not a fitter pack, failed to get possession of the ball as much as they should.

This also applied to the set scrums, although in the loose the forwards showed some useful bursts of speed but often only individually.

St. Neots pressed hard from the onset with the result that the first try was scored after only five minutes.

Walden were slow to cover after a kick ahead, and in a loose scrum the visitors pushed their way through to score. The high winds made kicking very difficult, and attempts at covering throughout the game were unsuccessful.

Walden equalised when Wright-

Biggest yet

Haverhill Hockey Club ran up their biggest win of the season when they beat a Cambridge City side 7-1 on the Wrating Road playing fields.

Haverhill were soon in the attack and David Pryke scored their first goal from the edge of the circle. At half-time they were three goals up, other scorers being Roger Pryke and C. Reynolds. In the second half, hitting down hill with the wind behind them, Haverhill continued to dominate, with the right wing outstanding.

Cambridge scored a consolation goal while Haverhill added four more through David Pryke (3) and Roger Pryke from a penalty flick.

Haverhill: J. Smart, R. Hubbard, M. Morris, P. Blake, R. Long, R. Davison, N. Lanham, R. Pryke, D. Pryke, J. Watkins, C. Reynolds.

Purbeck again

Purbeck Rovers 4, Papworth Res. 1. Purbeck Rovers continued their winning run in impressive style. Roger Tidman put them ahead and their second goal came when Terry Bullen's centre beat the goalkeeper and entered the net.

Purbeck increased their lead with a rather 'soft' goal. Right-half Badcock tried a hopeful long shot, which the goalkeeper, who had previously made a number of good saves, made no attempt to save.

Bicheno completed their tally with a good goal. Papworth's goal came from inside-left Key who scored with a high shot after beating three men.

Offley's fine rally to reach 'indoor' final

The semi-final of the Cambridge and County Bowls Club's indoor singles competition between A. J. Offley, last season's runner-up and S. W. Webb produced a splendid match.

Webb's notable county player, is a new comer to the indoor game. Starting quietly, Offley led 5-4 at the sixth end. At this point Webb took possession and, with a run of 2-2-3-1-2-3, ran up a score of 18-5 at the 13th end. Facing what seemed certain defeat, Offley got in a couple of three's which brought him to double figures. During the next seven ends Webb could only gather two singles, while Offley got in 2-2-3-1 and ran to game with a two at the 22nd end. Score 21-20.

The second semi-final between P. Robinson and A. E. Burgess was of shorter duration. Robinson going to game 21-8 after 15 ends. Burgess played strongly in the first five ends, but a four against him at the sixth proved his undoing, and he was unable to gather more than 3 singles on the remaining ends.

The games were umpired and
